

Criminal Theft and Fraud Charges Dropped Against W&L Client in Sioux City

Des Moines, IA (January 2014) – Mark Weinhardt and Todd Lantz represented a business owner accused of theft, fraudulent practices, money laundering, conspiracy, and ongoing criminal conduct. The charges arose from the Firm's client's business dealings with a former employee of the Iowa Department of Transportation. After Mark and Todd investigated the case and presented the results of their investigation to the prosecuting attorney, the State agreed to a complete dismissal of all charges against the Firm's client.

Press coverage of the case is available here:
