

W&L Client Acquitted Across the Board in Pharmacy Health Care Fraud Trial

Des Moines, IA (March 2014) – Mark Weinhardt and Holly Logan defended the owner of an Iowa City pharmacy against 15 counts of health care fraud. The government alleged that the Firm’s client, in conjunction with a Florida company, engaged in a nationwide scheme to defraud health insurers out of the cost of drugs for treating hemophiliacs – drugs that can cost hundreds of thousands of dollars per patient per year. Mark and Holly countered that all of the drugs delivered by the Firm’s client had been medically necessary and eligible for insurance coverage and that the prosecution was a misguided extension of a purely civil contract dispute. The jury acquitted Mr. Stein on all charges.
